

JOIN CHAI CENTER FOR JEWISH LIFE
AT: NJ PERFORMING ARTS CENTER, NEWARK

18TH ANNUAL UJA BENEFIT CONCERT

NJ Symphony Orchestra

Sunday, May 17

1:00 pm = Backstage tour

2:00 pm = Concert

Legendary violinist Isaac Stern performed on the NJSO's very first UJA concert in 1998. The legacy of the concert is carried on this year by Stern's son Michael, an accomplished conductor who leads a program rich in cultural gems:

Prokofiev - Overture on Hebrew Themes; Mendelssohn - Piano Concerto No. 1 with pianist Alon Goldstein (pictured); Smetana - "The Moldau"; Brahms - Finale from Symphony No. 2

Tickets $60.00

Discounted Premium tickets in the Grand Tier section

Seats are limited

First come—first served

For those interested,
an after-theater dinner
will be arranged.

More information to follow

Mail checks to: CCJL, 20 Shawnee Drive, Watchung, NJ 07069

Questions? Contact Monique at 908.221.0992 or Monique.Krohn@gmail.com

Chai Center
for Jewish Life